

Winners: Andrew Green, right, and Barry Kaye

Pork pie connoisseurs from across the UK descended on Calderdale Each was hoping for a slice of the action at the 15th Annual Charity Master Pork Pie Maker Competition.

Fifty-three entrants from as far afield as Glasgow and Southampton fought it out for the title of Champion Pie Maker in a gruelling contest organised by the Ripponden-based Pork Pie Appreciation Society at the Old Bridge Inn, Ripponden.

