Pies

Howard □ Small pie, well baked with crispy pastry that was soggy in parts. Coarse meat lacked flavour. Lot of jelly.

Score 5.0/10

Tim □ Does not look fresh, and does not taste fresh. Well filled with even jelly. No spice and not much salt. Pork tasted off!

Score 2.0/10

Kevin □ Big pie! Short pastry, lardy on the bottom. Full to the brim with meat. Not spicy but tasty meat. Fresh and I enjoyed it.

Score 8.0/10

Peter □ Average sized pie! Do we all need glasses? Three different size estimates. Fresh crisp pastry and tasty meat.

Score 7.0/10

Mark □ Average size and packed with meat. Gaps filled with jelly. Needed more pepper.

Score 8.0/10

Pies

Richard □ Oval shape - is it a Lancashire pie? Soggy pastry – has the jelly soaked in? Very nice meat, very spicy, compact. Nice size. Liked it.

Score 7.5/10

Pete □ Oval. Reminiscent of Holts of Halifax. Soft pastry Well filled, peppery. Enjoyed it.

Score 8.0/10

Kevin □ A pie from the past. Holt look- a –like. Soft, doughy, tasteless pastry. Excellent jelly, lovely peppery meant. Would have been a great pie but for the pastry.

Score 7.0/10

Mark □ Like a Waites' pie. Soft pastry. Bit cold. Liberal amounts of jelly. Bland meat in my pie. Alright pie.

Score 5.5/10

Tim □ "Hell, it's got some pepper in it" Left without scoring. Howard says he would have given it.

Score 7.0/10

Howard □ Unusual shaped pie. Soggy pastry. Well filled. Plenty of tasty jelly. Tasty meat, but too fine for me. Plenty of after burn.

Score 7.0/10

Summary
