

Pie Meeting Saturday 4th April 2015

World Events

“Magnificent 7” leaders of UK political parties spoke on TV this week.
Who came out on top?

Rochdale family caught on way to Syria and detained.

Ripponden flood causes mayhem. Cars wrecked and road destroyed.

German pilot in suicide crash accelerated into the mountain. All black boxes now found.

Sport

Halifax drew against Macclesfield 2-2

Is Imran Khan running scared of Kell Brook of Sheffield ?

Arsenal now second in league. Who wants to sack Wenger now?

Peter □ Neat well filled pie. Not much jelly. Tasty meat but pastry soft and probably not fresh.

Score 7.0/10

Tim □ Looks sad, not fresh, plenty of pepper.

Score 2.0/10

Bruce □ Small pale pie, crinkley sides soft pastry. Not much jelly but really tasty meat.

Score 7.5/10

Howard □ Small sad looking pie. Soggy pastry, meat tasted lardy bit of pepper there.

Score 5.0/10

Mark □ Soft pastry. Bakers pie, yesterday's pie. Biggest rat run ever seen. Salty but no other spice, rubbery jelly.

Score 3.5/10

Kevin □ It was fresh, small, pale, well filled. No jelly. Firm meat, little bit of spice and pastry was nutty.

Score 7.0/10

Summary

Fetcher □ Kevin

Fetch □ Marshals of Clayton, Bradford.

Price □ £1.05

Average □ 5.3