

Pie Club Saturday 14 October

World Events

North Korea explode nuclear bomb

Madonna to adopt an African boy

Teaching assistant suspended for wearing a veil in class

British Airways say that wearing a crucifix is not allowed by cabin crew.

Stock market reaches 5 year high.

Sport

Paul Hunter died of cancer

English football on the ropes after recent losses

Comments on Pie

Phil

Crisp, fresh pastry perhaps a little over done, succulent meat, needed a little more spice. 8/10

John

Rough looking, fresh and succulent, well filled pie 8/10

Kevin

Excellent pie, thin crisp pastry, very fresh, tasty meat, could be Wilsons of Leeds. 9/10

Mark

Good looking pie, well glazed, super presentation of the pie makers art.

Bruce

Compact, well glazed pie, flaky pastry, succulent pie, did not need jelly, superb. 9/10

Peter

Good looking, crisp fresh pastry, hint of sage in the meat, a delicious pork pie. 9/10

From Elite Meats of Starbeck, Harrogate Average mark 8.4 Cost 90p

Pie Club Saturday 21 Oct

World Events

Dewsbury Muslim woman who refused to remove veil in front of school children gets £1700 for hurt feelings.

Claire Short resigned as Labour MP but stays on as independent.

Head of the Army against being in Iraq

Aberfan disaster 40 years ago this week

Madonna brings home African baby

Leeds man still on death row in Pakistan after 18 years for a crime the high court says he did not commit!

Sport

Shoab Akter (Pakistan's fast bowler caught using steroids)

Joe Calzaghi 10 years as middle weight champion

Robin Knox Johnson begins round the World Yacht race

Pies

Bob

Soft pastry, nice jelly, impressive meat 7

Richard

A new fetch but average 5

Peter

Big, needed more seasoning, but good all rounder 6

Mark

Pastry looks like well polished wood, lovely meat, thick pastry 8.5

Tim

Looked nice but wasn't 5

Kevin

Thought Tim must still be ill. Soft pastry nice meat, needed spice 7.5

Average 5.8 Price 50p from Haighs of Mirfield

Fetcher Kevin

Saturday 28 Oct

World Events

Tragedy in Corfu. Two children from Wakefield die from fumes off faulty heater.

Face transplant to go ahead soon. Kevin is on the waiting list!

Fishing boat lost in storms in Scotland

Romanian immigrants will have restrictions on work permits – they can still though.

Sport

Robin Knox Johnson calls in for repairs on round the world race.

Englands best beat West Indies in one day match

Rooney gets a hat trick

Yorkshire signs Pakistani batsman.

Pies

Mark

More jelly than a kids' tea party. Sausage meat 5

John

Very good looking. Loads of jelly. Quite tasty 6.5

Peter

Enjoyed it but dry. Well made but needed seasoning. 7.5

Kevin

Had potential, jelly missing, 7.5

Bob

Enjoyed it 8

Tim

Good looker,nice jelly, meat very compact, lacked seasoning 6

Richard

Big ,dry pastry, bit lardy nice jelly. 7

Bruce

Nicely presented

Tardis pie – big on the inside so well filled. no jelly crisp pastry. 7

Fred

Meat moist, looked good, little jelly 7.5

Fetcher Fred for Hoffmans of Wakefield price 68p Ave mark = 7.2