

Pies 5/10 /07

World Events

No election this year or next says Gordon Brown. Guests from the Midlands tell us that Hillary Clinton will be the next President of USA

Gloucestershire Firemen disciplined for shining a torch on gay men in bushes at a “dogging” site.

Postal strike for 5 days starts Monday.

3rd Inquest for Princess Diana this week.

Prince William girl friend gets fed up with Papparazzi.

Man arrested for man handling teenagers who were vandalising.

Broadcaster and writer Ned Sherrin has died from throat cancer, aged 76.

Sport

England thrash Australia 12 to 10 at Rugby Union.

Gt North Run raised millions for Charity.

England cricket team beat Sri Lanka

Lewis Hamilton won the Japanese GP. And in pole position for Chinese GP.

Marion Jones is stripped of Olympic medals for admitting steroid abuse.

Pie

Kevin – Not fresh, old pastry, bland, chewy meat, no jelly 6.5

Bob – Not fresh, sharp pastry, lack of jelly, tasty and a little bit of after burn. 7

Richard – Not fresh, soft pastry. Solid meat, peppery, enjoyed it 7.5

Peter – Looked nice, crisp pastry, greasy bottom, no jelly, could have had more pepper.

8

Mark - Looked good, nice looker, nice meat, not a lot of jelly, mouth burned with pepper.

8

Phil – Not good looking, enjoyed the pastry, 6

John (fetcher) Rough looking pie, not fresh, sweet taste to the pastry, compact meat, no jelly, afterburn with it.

7

Average = 7.1 From Gary Snowden's of Keithley sold by Brighthouse Market

17 Nov. 2007

World Events

Bird Flu outbreak in Norfolk. Lord West said happy with 28 days detention for suspected terrorists and then changes his mind after talking to PM Brown

Jill Dando's "killer" – Barry George gets retrial .

Lesley Molseed's killer jailed for life. Lesley died in 1974 and Steven Kisko served 16 years for the crime.

Peter Tobin in jail for murder implicated in more murders from years ago. Two bodies found in a house he lived in.

Sport

Israel 2 Russia 1. If England win on Wed. England are through to European Championships.

Michael Owen injured again

Pies

Mark – Sticky top pie. Crispy, loads of jelly. Tasty, lots of afterburn. Bit soggy on the sides

7.5

Bob – Lovely jelly, fantastic meat, really liked it 8

Peter – Sticky top, lovely crisp and nutty pastry. Porky, lots of jelly and lots of pepper. 9

Phil – Sticky and soft all over. Well packed meat. Little aroma of pork. Not today's!

6.5

Guest Lee -Filo pastry - Best in a long time. 7

Guest Steven - Salty and full. 7

John – Sticky top. Not uniform look. Well glazed. Flakey pastry, Salt in jelly and peppery. Smelt porky. 8

Metcalfe's of Cleckheaton. 80p Ave 7.5

24 Nov 2007-12-01

World Events

HM Customs and Revenue lose 2 CD Roms with 28 million records on them.

Antarctic Cruise ship sinks

Jelly fish kill salmon off the Irish Coast

HSBC take over bid for Yorkshire Water

Queen celebrates 60th wedding anniversary

Australian PM has lost seat and parliament

Heather Mills McCartney says drink rats milk

Sport

England fail to qualify for Euro 2000

MaClaren is sacked as England's coach

England players booed at local clubs

Pies

Phil – Good looking pie,nice smell,well filled and tasty.May have been yesterday's 7.5

John – Wide pie. Dark pastry, fresh, semi crisp, well filled, porky, compact meat, moist, not much jelly. Damned good pie. 8

Kevin – Pie made to last with short pastry. Crisp pastry but soft on the inside. Lacked spice, probably an Andrew Jones pie 7.5

Mark – Squat pie, tasty meat, no jelly, fresh. No spice that that spoilt it. 8

Richard – Nice meat, fresh, a bit fatty, no jelly and salty. 7.5

Bruce – Thick short pastry, greasy, lacked jelly and spice. Fresh. 7

Peter – Fresh, greasy pastry did lack spice but still a good pie and I fetched it so 8

90p. Andrew Jones pie from Metcalfes in Lindley, Average 7.6

Bostick and Crowther Low Moor Bradford 90p Ave.