Pie Meeting 5th November 2016

World Events

Judges rule that the Brexit decision has to go before Parliament. Government to appeal.

Trumpt/Clinton battle continues. Insults traded. FBI to investigate more of Hilary's emails.

Iraq City of Mosel now being attacked by Iraq's forces and ISIS are resisting strongly.

Betty, matriarch of the Old Bridge Inn dies at 91. She was still working part time at the Bridge. Danced on Saturday, lunch out on Sunday and died on Monday.

Pies

Tim Good looking pie, if a little shallow. Crunchy pastry, coarse meat, lacked flavour and left a lardy film in the mouth. Dissappointing taste.

Score 6.0/10

Peter Very good looking pie, Lardy pastry, meat was like meat paste, not nice.

Score 4.0/10

Kevin Fresh, thin pastry, very finely ground meat, lacked taste, lardy pastry.

Score 4.0/10

Summary

Fetcher Kevin

Fetch Halifax Borough Market.

Price £1.10

Average 4.6

Pie Meeting Saturday 26th November 2016

World

Fidal Castro died today at 90.

Footballers tell of historic sexual abuse.

Chancellor gives last autumn statement.

Floods in the SE England

Sports

Murray top tennis player in the World.

Wales beat South Africa in Rugby.

Pies

Kevin Tasted greasy, short and crispy pastry. Thrown together. Average.

Score 5.5/10

Mark Greasy pastry, crispy and tasty. Nice amount of jelly. Meat was compact, full of spice, good flavour.

Score 7.5/10

Tim Crisp lardy pastry, meat too compact and dry.

Score 6.0/10

Peter Crispy short pastry. Bit greasy, well filled and lots of pepper.

Score 7.5/10

Summary

Fetcher Peter

Fetch Brosters of Huddersfield.

Price £1.20

Average 6.5